STANDING RULES AND PROCEDURES

Revised - May 2023

Adopted – June 2, 2023

INDIANA ARTS FESTIVAL

The Bylaws of the Indiana Arts Festival (Article VII, Section 3E) authorize the Board of Directors to adopt such rules of procedure as are needed to direct the affairs of the IAF. The directives of the IAF Standing Rules and Procedures are prepared to supplement the Bylaws for the guidance of IAF workers and interested members.

Complete up-to-date copies of the IAF Standing Rules and Procedures are available on-line at indianaartsfestival.org.

These Standing Rules and Procedures may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the Board of Directors members present at any board meeting. As revision of the various pages occur, the date of revision will be printed in parentheses to aid in maintaining an up-to-date copy of this document. It shall be the duty of the Bylaws and Rules Chairman to prepare the necessary changes so that they are made available as outlined above. Members will be notified of changes to these Standing Rules by email or newsletter, in addition to posting on the IAF website.

II. MEMBERSHIP

A. All IAF MEMBERS must be members of IAF in good standing (currently paid dues), as either members of an Organization, Festival Teacher Members or Friends of the Arts Members.

B. All IAF OFFICERS AND CHAIRPERSONS must be members of IAF in good standing as either members of an IAF Organization, Festival Teacher Members or Friends of the Arts Members.

C. All TEACHERS ENTERING STUDENTS IN AN AREA FESTIVAL must be Festival Teacher Members of IAF in good standing. Adults serving an Area Festival as Chair, Treasurer or in another capacity, who are not entering students, may be Friends of the Arts Members.

III. BOARD OF DIRECTORS (BOD)

A. COMPOSITION - Refer to Bylaws Article VII, Section 1.

B. APPOINTMENT OF TREASURER'S REVIEW COMMITTEE: The Board of Directors shall appoint a committee of two to review the Treasurer's books at the end of each fiscal year, before August 1. This committee will report to the Board of Directors at the next meeting. (Bylaws Article V, Section 2.D.16)

C. RESPONSIBILITIES: Each member who accepts nomination for Board

- membership also accepts certain obligations and responsibilities. Board members, as representatives of their Local Organizations or Area Festivals, are obligated to report promptly to their membership action which affects their Local Organization or Area Festival. The only exception to this is in-house information, designated as such by the IAF President or Executive Committee, which shall be kept strictly confidential.
- D. GENERAL DUTIES: A member of this Board must appropriately represent the interest of IAF and all its component organizations as well as his/her Local Organization/Area Festival. The Board Member serves as Liaison between the Indiana Arts Festival and Local Organization/Area Festival, delivering a stated interest of the Local Organization/Area Festival for the deliberation of the IAF Board and, in turn, helping to interpret the state plans and interest to the Local Organization/Area Festival. To do this the Board member must attend the meetings of the Board and benefit from the discussions which influence decisions.
- E. LIAISON: Each member of the Board should become familiar with the IAF Bylaws and the Standing Rules and Procedures and should keep the President or Chair and the members of the Local Organization/Area Festival informed of State Board action and policies affecting them, so that appropriate action may be taken for implementation at the local level.
- F. ASSISTANCE: An IAF Board member should assist the Officers and Chairs of the represented Local Organization/Area Festival in promoting and advancing IAF programs throughout the state. The Board member should comply promptly with any specific directives given by the IAF President.
- G. DUTIES OF LOCAL ORGANIZATION/AREA FESTIVAL REPRESENTATIVES: Directors representing Local Organizations/Area Festivals (which may be the same person as the Area Festival Chair) should:
1. Give to the IAF President, Recording Secretary and State Festival Chair, the names, addresses and contact information of their Local Organization/Area Festival chairmen/officers, whether new or re-elected, whenever there is an election of officers. This information should include the date of assuming office.
- H. ATTENDANCE: A member of the IAF Board of Directors should:
1. Attend each session of the Board,
 2. Attend all meetings, whether regularly scheduled or Special,
 3. Remain until the session is adjourned.
- I. ABSENCES: Refer to Bylaws Article VII, Section 2.C
- J. QUORUM: Refer to Bylaws Article VII, Section 2.D
- K. MOTIONS: All motions must be made by the member in attendance originating them. Absent members cannot sponsor motions by letter or email. Such messages will not be placed on the agenda. However, this does not preclude members present from sponsoring such a motion as their own. The one exception to this rule is during Business by Mail, Bylaws Article VII, Section 4, in which all transactions, including motions, are done electronically.

IV. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- A. PERSONNEL: Refer to Bylaws Article VIII, Section 1
- B. RESPONSIBILITIES: Refer to Bylaws Article VIII, Section 2

- C. FINANCIAL EMERGENCY The Executive Committee shall be given the power/authority to address situations of financial emergency (wars, depression, etc.) by lowering/adjusting said payments in order to preserve the principal in each of the established awards as enumerated in Section C.VII of these standing rules. (The power to make these adjustments is by cy pres., a legal term which means that such action was taken to protect the original intent of the donor.)

SECTION B. DUTIES OF OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTAL CHAIRS

I. PRESIDENT

- A. Refer to Bylaws Article V, Section 2.A
- B. READING COMMITTEE: At the beginning of the Annual Convention, the President shall appoint a reading committee of two or three, one of whom shall be the Vice President, to review the minutes of the annual meeting, as well as the following Fall and Winter Board of Directors meetings.
- C. LIABILITY INSURANCE: The President shall personally, or select a delegate to solicit, collect and send to the State Treasurer, the liability insurance requests, from IAF Organizations and Area Festivals in accordance with the deadlines listed in IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.VI.
- D. CONVENTION COMMITTEE: In addition to appointing officers, departmental chairs and standing committee members subject to Executive Committee approval, at the Fall Board of Directors meeting, the President shall appoint the Annual Convention Committee members, to be chaired by the Vice President. The Annual Convention Committee, comprised of the President, Vice President and at least two other members, are charged to plan, arrange, and manage the Annual Convention and Honors Recital and Awards Program. These appointments are not subject to Executive Committee approval.
- E. FINANCIAL DUTIES The President and Treasurer are the authorized signatories for any financial transaction of IAF and one of their signatures is required for deposit or withdrawal of amounts up to $5,000. For amounts exceeding $5,000, both of their signatures are required.
- 1. No expenses that have exceeded the budget shall be paid without the approval of a committee of three, the President, Vice-President, and Treasurer.
- F. PRESIDENTIAL EXPENSES: The President's reasonable expenses shall be reimbursed for attendance at conventions or board meetings including, but not limited to, registration fees, meals, lodging, travel according to the plan outlined in IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.IV.A. Receipts or other documentation shall be provided for reimbursement. Reimbursement money returned to IAF may be designated to a particular scholarship by the donor.

- G. REIMBURSEMENT CHECKS to the President may not be written/signed by the President. Any check issued from the account of an organization formed under the auspices of IAF must be written and signed by a signer other than the payee.

- A. PRESIDENTIAL EXPENSES: President's reasonable expenses shall be reimbursed for attendance at conventions or board meetings, including, but not limited to, registration fees, meals, lodging, travel. Reimbursement for meal expenses may not exceed $25 per day; the $25 per diem allotment may be combined for the number of travel days to allow reimbursement for total meal expenses over the course of the travel days (example: if the convention/travel days total five, then the total meal reimbursement allotment would be $125. Reimbursement for meals could not exceed that amount. Travel expenses are reimbursed at cost for economy/coach class airfare; mileage for travel by car is reimbursed at the IRS non-profit rate. Receipts or other documentation shall be provided for reimbursement. Reimbursement money returned to IAF may be designated to a particular scholarship by the donor.
- B. LOCAL FESTIVALS may choose to reimburse their Area Festival Chair (or official representative) for expenses incurred attending IAF meetings and the State Convention.
- C. HONORARIUMS shall be paid to each Area Festival sending a representative to the IAF Annual Area Festival Chair Meeting in the following amounts: Festivals reporting up to 500 entries shall receive $50; Festivals reporting 501 up to 1000 entries shall receive $100. Festivals not sending a representative to the IAF Convention forfeit said honorarium. An Area Festival representative may be someone serving IAF in another capacity who is also willing to represent their festival at the IAF Annual Festival Chair Meeting.
- D. Reimbursement money returned to IAF may be designated to a particular scholarship by the donor.

- V. PAST PRESIDENT APPRECIATION: Upon honorable completion of a presidential term, the IAF BOD will name an award honoring the outgoing IAF President as designated by the IAF Board of Directors. (2-2023)

VI. LIABILITY INSURANCE (2/2023)

Events held under the auspices of the Indiana Arts Festival should be insured to protect the Organization at a specific location in the event of a lawsuit. The one-million-dollar insurance policy obtained through IAF protects all Organization meetings, Area Festivals, Programs, Contests, Festival Member meetings, at the specified location for bodily injury or property damage caused during a IAF sponsored event to a 3rd party. Property damage to or theft of musical instruments is not covered.

The Indiana Arts Festival will provide coverage for two events as outlined in Section VI (Liability Insurance) for each Area Festival or Organization. In order to secure coverage, Area Festivals and Organizations must provide dates and locations for their events using the following protocol:

- A. For events held September 1 through December 31, notification deadline to IAF is August 1st
- B. For events held January 1 through August 31, notification deadline to IAF is November 15th
- C. Events that are held on two consecutive days, at one site, are considered one event
- D. A single day event, other than the two covered by IAF, costs $20.00 per event
- E. An event on a single day but at multiple sites costs $20 per site
- F. Any Festival or Organization may pay the premium for insurance coverage for additional events as outlined in Section C, D and E
- G. A certificate verifying insurance coverage will be issued by the insurance company when requested. This request must be made at the same time the event dates are submitted, see Section A and B, allowing time for the certificate to be processed.

VII. CONTESTS AND AWARDS The IAF Board will determine new awards, set the amount of an award to be given and the number of awards available.

This excludes Local Festival judges who are paid according to each Festival's resources. (2/2006)

SECTION D. HANDLING OF CONTESTS

- I. HONORARIUMS for IAF event Judges shall be set by the IAF Board and vary according to event as listed under FINANCE.
- II. CD/Video/Audio RECORDINGS may be submitted or used for any IAF contest if rules for that contest allow. Scores and recordings shall be sent to the chair of the event as directed.
- III. IAF JUDGES will receive directives about the contest, play-offs and other competitions beforehand, only from the chair of the event. No changes in the directives may be given, written or orally, except by the event chair.
- IV. JUDGES alone will decide from the directives given by the chair, how many awards are merited and what the rankings will be regardless of the contestant's age, difficulty, or instrument.
- V. ALL JUDGE DECISIONS are final. Decisions may be made without justification. Only the judge can alter his/her decision. Judges will not discuss their decisions with performers or their parents.
- VI. Judges may choose their preference of filling out the rubric or judging only with comments. Judging sheets may or may not be returned to entrants at the discretion of the chair of the event. (9/2018)
- VII. Before, during and after all contests, there will be no conversation or communication with the judge pertaining to any aspect of the contest, the performance, adjudication, program order or any other thing related to the operation of the judging room except by the chair of the event. Such conversation with the judge(s) by parents/legal guardians, students, teachers, or other officials is prohibited. (5/2024)
 - A. If an IAF teacher or parent/legal guardian has a complaint and wishes to submit a suggestion to be considered for future contests, a written (hard copy) letter must be submitted to the Executive Board via an IAF Officer. Emails, texts or phone calls will not constitute a written letter. (9/2018)

- B. If an IAF Teacher speaks with the judge or presiding IAF member to discuss the operation of the judging room or the judge's decision, that teacher's students will be prohibited from participating in that competition for the following year. (5/2024)
- C. If a parent/legal guardian or student speaks with the judge or presiding IAF member to discuss the operation of the judging room or the judge's decision, that parent/legal guardian's student(s) will be prohibited from participating in that competition for the following year. (5/2024)

VIII. OPEN CONTESTS: During Open Contests, an audience is permitted, however all efforts must be made to protect the judge from hearing conversation and comments.

IX. CLOSED CONTESTS: During Closed Contests, no one will be allowed in the judging room except the judges, student, accompanist and the chair of the event. The room will be cleared between contestants.

X. PERMITTED SCORES: (9/2018)

- A. All repertoire for all events must be commercially published,
- B. Only original music will be accepted for any IAF competition or contest,
- C. E-print music with a legible authentication page is not considered copied music. If submitted music is e-print, the tracer/authentication page must be printed, legible and accompany the score at the time of the audition.
- D. Public Domain music may be used as long as:
 - 1. It is not available from any copyrighted source,
 - 2. The teacher and his/her student (or guardian) sign a “copyright representation and indemnification agreement” (see Appendix 1) certifying that, to the best of their knowledge, a copyrighted source does not exist. The form must be attached to the printed score that is presented as being in the public domain.
 - 3. The copyright representation and indemnification agreement accompanies the score and is handed to the judge at the time of performance.
 - 4. Proof of copyright representation and indemnification is the responsibility of the teacher and/or entrant.
 - 5. Any score presented for performance without such copyright representation and indemnification agreement renders the participant ineligible for that competition.
- E. For events not requiring memory:
 - 1. Photocopies may be used by the student(s) or judge, as long as there in one original of the music in the audition room. The photocopy must be left with the judge at the conclusion of the judging. IAF will be responsible for shredding such copies.

- F. Instrumental Scores: For an instrumentalist in an IAF contest, the score submitted to the judge must be the solo part. (9/2018)

SECTION E. ORGANIZATIONS

The purpose of IAF Organizations is to promote the study or performance of the arts, including arts clubs or organizations, arts teacher organizations, and arts appreciation organizations.

I. FORMATION

- A. Each Organization must meet requirements as set forth by IAF bylaws in order to organize.
- B. Each Organization must have both a President and a Treasurer, who must be different persons, to run the Organization according to IAF Bylaws and Standing Rules, and may have other officers according to the needs of the Club.
- C. Each Organization must have their own set of Bylaws and Standing Rules to help achieve the purpose of their club and which are in accordance with IAF Bylaws and Standing Rules.

- II. OBJECT: Organizations are created to promote study of the arts, and encourage participants to value high standards of artistic achievement.

III. MEMBERSHIP

- A. Refer to Bylaws Article III. Section 1.A.
- B. Organizations may attain membership in IAF by paying dues as an Organization.
- C. An Organization's membership in IAF may be terminated by discontinuing annual dues payments and disassociating with IAF.

IV. DUES

- A. Each member of an Organization must belong and pay dues to the Organization, refer to Bylaws Article X, Section 3, 4 and 5.k.
- B. Membership dues must be paid to the Indiana Arts Festival annually by the deadline provided in IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.1.

V. DUTIES OF ORGANIZATION PRESIDENTS

- A. ALL ORGANIZATION PRESIDENTS must attend IAF board meetings and the IAF convention. The Organization President acts as liaison between the local Organization and IAF, and so should attend all IAF meetings or send a suitable representative.

B. Organization President shall:

- 1) Chair an organization meeting annually to plan the business of the Organization,
- 2) Chair each meeting of the Organization,
- 3) See that the Organization Treasurer pays dues according to IAF Standing Rules and Procedures by the deadline stated,
- 4) Be the point of contact between IAF and the Organization, receiving and dispersing information from IAF to the Organization membership and from the Organization back to IAF,
- 5) Be a signer on the Organization bank account,
- 6) May not write a reimbursement check to themselves. Checks must be written and signed by someone other than the payee.

VI. DUTIES OF ORGANIZATION TREASURERS:

- A. Keep annual financial records for fiscal year July 1 to June 30th,
- B. Collect and deposit dues annually according to IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.1,
- C. Receive and complete an IAF Dues Summary, including officer names and contact information, and submit electronically to the IAF Treasurer by October 15th,
- D. Send one check covering all dues, made payable to IAF, to the IAF Treasurer by October 15th,
- E. Pay all bills and reimbursable Organization expenses to vendors, speakers/performers, and Organization members, keeping records of all expenses accrued,
- F. May not write a reimbursement check to themselves. Checks must be written and signed by someone other than the payee,
- G. Submit a Treasurers Report to the Organization (at least annually) according to the requirements of each Organization,
- H. Retain Organization financial records for 10 years.

SECTION F. AREA FESTIVALS, AREA FESTIVAL OFFICERS, AREA FESTIVAL PLAY-OFFS AND STATE HONORS RECITAL

The purpose of IAF Area Festivals is to provide young artists (through age 18) and adults (age 19 and above) opportunities and encouragement for continued artistic growth. Many solo and ensemble events are available to participants. Entrants do not compete against each other but are rated on their individual merits. Area Festivals are intended for average students as well as the very talented. Rules and regulations are printed in the IAF Festivals Handbook and Procedures Manual and are approved by the IAF Board of Directors. Also refer to IAF Bylaws Article XII. In choosing to participate in an Area Festival, teachers and students are thereby agreeing to comply with all rules and procedures as outlined in the IAF Festivals Manual and below.

I. ALL AREA FESTIVAL ENTRANTS must be entered through an IAF Teacher member in good standing, in the discipline(s) in which they are entering. Teachers may not submit entrants in events which they do not personally teach. When submitting Festival Teacher Dues applications, teachers must list the instruments/mediums in which they teach. Students entered under that teacher may only enter events in which that teacher is registered.

II. ALL FESTIVAL PARTICIPANTS may only enter an Area Festival in the area where their teacher is a member or has been assigned. At the discretion of the Area Festival Chair, overflow rooms or make-up dates may be provided when conflicts arise.

III. ALLOWED EVENTS: Only events listed in the IAF Festivals Handbook and Procedures Manual will be accepted events in any Area festival.

IV. PERMITTED SCORES (1/2023)

- A. Students must purchase an original copy of their music. It is unacceptable for a teacher to purchase one copy and have multiple students borrow it to perform in an Area Festival.
- B. All repertoire for all events must be commercially published.
- C. For events not requiring memory:
 - 1. Photocopies may be used by the student(s) or judge, as long as there is one original of the music in the audition room. The photocopy must be left with the judge at the conclusion of the judging. Festivals will be responsible for shredding such copies.
 - 2. For ease of page turns, students may copy a page to avoid a page turn as long as it accompanies the original score.
- D. E-print music with a legible authentication page is not considered copied music. If submitted music is e-print, the tracer/authentication page must be printed, legible and accompany the score at the time of the audition.
- E. Public Domain music may be used as long as:
 - 1. It is not available from any copyrighted source,
 - 2. The teacher and his/her student (or guardian) signs a “copyright representation and indemnification agreement” (see Appendix 1) certifying that, to the best of their knowledge, a copyrighted source does not exist. The form must be attached to the printed score that is presented as being in the public domain.
 - 3. The copyright representation and indemnification agreement accompanies the score and is handed to the judge at the time of performance.
 - 4. Proof of copyright representation and indemnification is the responsibility of the teacher and/or entrant.

5. Any score presented for performance without such copyright representation and indemnification agreement renders the participant ineligible for Indiana Gold Cup points in that event.

F. Instrumental Scores: For an instrumentalist in an IAF festival, the score submitted to the judge must be the solo part.

V. ACCOMPANIMENT (7/2023) Live accompaniment is preferred, but recorded piano accompaniments may be used at the Area Festival. For Playoffs, the Area Festival may decide whether to allow recorded accompaniment. All accompaniments at the State Honors Recital performances must be live.

VI. ACCOMMODATIONS FOR SPECIAL NEEDS PERFORMERS (1/2023)

Each local festival area may create a statement of accommodations to be made and delivered to the judge on a case-by-case basis. Performance by video recording is allowed as an accommodation.

VII. EACH AREA FESTIVAL will set its own Event Fee charge according to the financial needs of the Area Festival.

A. Individual teachers may not charge event fees larger than the fee amount set by their Area Festival. (They may charge a "studio" fee but may not represent such as a larger Area Festival event fee.)

VIII. EACH AREA FESTIVAL will be financially self-sustaining, creating and operating within an annual budget.

IX. AREA FESTIVAL PROBATION: All Area Festivals are required to comply with Festival procedure as stated in the IAF Festival Handbook and Procedures Manual and with IAF Bylaws and Standing Rules. Any Indiana Festival found by the Executive Committee to be non-compliant (e.g., failure to adhere to multiple deadlines, financial issues/deficits, documentation of non-compliance issues not brought into compliance despite numerous warnings) will be placed on probation and under Executive Committee supervision until such time as the Area Festival officers have resolved the non-compliance issues or otherwise demonstrated full compliance with IAF Festival rules and procedures.

X. FESTIVAL RATINGS, averaged point score from all judges, will be as follows:

- A. Superior (23-25 points)
- B. Excellent (18-22 points)
- C. Satisfactory (13-17 points)
- D. Fair (8-12 points)
- E. Needs Improvement (0-7 points)

F. Memorization: For any solo event in which memory is required and the piece is not memorized, an automatic zero will be recorded in the Preparation Accuracy category on the rating sheet.

XI. THEORY

A. THEORY GRADING sheets will be used as directed by IAF.

B. THEORY SCORES will be as follows:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|----------------|
| 1. Superior | 90-100 |
| 2. Excellent | 80-89.5 |
| 3. Satisfactory | 70-79.5 |
| 4. Fair | 60-69.5 |
| 5. Needs Improvement | <60 |

XII. INDIANA ARTS FESTIVAL GOLD CUP PLAN automatically includes all Festival Participants. Points are earned according to each Festival event rating achieved. IAF Gold Cups are earned according to cumulative points. There are ten IAF Gold Cup sizes and two Plaques. Awards are based on cumulative points for all events entered. A participant's points accumulate from year to year.

A. Ribbons for each Festival event are also awarded based upon the rating received.

Ribbons are issued according to the rating points indicated below.

B. Indiana Arts Festival Gold Cup Points are acquired in the following way:

- | | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------|---------------------|
| 1. Superior | 5 points | Blue ribbon |
| 2. Excellent | 4 points | Red ribbon |
| 3. Satisfactory | 3 points | White ribbon |
| 4. Fair | 2 points | No ribbon |
| 5. Needs Improvement | 1 point | No ribbon |
| 6. *DNA | 0 points | |

*DNA refers to "did not appear" - the student did not appear for the event; no adjudication was made and no rating given.

CUMULATIVE POINT INDIANA GOLD CUP AWARDS are given as follows:

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------|
| #1 - 15 points | #7 - 210 points |
| #2 - 35 points | #8 - 260 points |
| #3 - 60 points | #9 - 315 points |
| #4 - 90 points | #10 - 375 points |
| #5 - 125 points | #11 - 440 points |
| #6 - 165 points | #12 - 510 points |

- B. Accompaniments – each Area Festival may decide whether to require live accompaniment or to allow recorded accompaniments. Accompaniments must be performed live at the IAF Honors Recital. (7/2023)
- C. Instructions to run a Festival Play-Off are as follows:
1. Area Festival Chairs may delegate some or most of these duties to a local Playoff Chair, but ultimate responsibility for completion rests with the Area Festival Chair.
 2. Select a time/date/location for Area Festival Play-off, to occur after Festival results have been distributed.
 3. Receive the annual IAF Honors Recital information email from the IAF Vice President in late April/early May.
 4. Update Play-off application with correct dates and locations for the Area Festival Play-off, as well as the IAF Honors Recital information, including deadlines.
 5. Disperse applications and competition rules to Area Festival teachers. Some Festivals include these applications in each teachers' Festival results packet on Festival Day.*
 6. Order your festival's choice of awards – certificates, ribbons or medals. Some Festivals also elect to give a monetary award.*
 7. Procure Judge/s for the play-off, providing judging sheets and competition rules to the judge/s.
 8. Receive applications and (optional) fees from participating students who meet the requirements set out in Standing Rules and Procedures for State Honors Recital (XIV.A. below).
 9. Turn in application fees (if applicable) to your Area Festival Treasurer.
 10. Prepare judging sheets with students' information, class description, and selection title (one judging sheet per judge per student).
 11. On the day of the play-off:
 - a. Prepare a judges table with judging sheets and pencils,
 - b. Set-up the room for piano, vocal, instrumental, etc., auditions, according to the applications received,
 - c. Prepare awards; obtain check/s from Area Festival Treasurer if you have elected to give out monetary awards,

- d. Greet participating students and inform them of the order of events,
- e. Emcee the play-off,
- f. Conduct each event with judge(s) selecting one winner in each category/grade level (if the judge determines that no student in a particular category is qualified to win, there is an option of not having winners in that particular category),
- g. When judge(s) have made final decisions for each event, announce results and hand out awards to winners,
- h. Disperse Honor's Recital information from IAF to winners and their teachers; disburse judging sheets to all participating students (if Area Festival so chooses),
- i. Fill out online IAF Honors Recital Entry Form with each winner's name and requested information, along with local Festival information,
- j. Submit Honors Recital Entry Form as instructed to the State Honors Recital Coordinator by the requested date.

XIV. STATE HONORS RECITAL is a competition for Area Festival Playoff Winners sponsored by IAF. The Honors Recital shall be held on Saturday during the State Convention in May or June. Scholarships will be awarded at the end of all recitals and winners must be present at the awards ceremony in order to receive a scholarship. Each IAF Area Festival may send up to one performer for each of the Honors Recital competition categories listed above in Section C.VI.8.

A. QUALIFICATION: To qualify for the Honors Recital, students must meet the following requirements:

- 1. Have earned a Superior rating at their Area festival in categories listed above in Section C.VII.8,
- 2. Have been selected to represent their Area Festival through a Play-Off,
- 3. Have their names and other information submitted online on the Honors Recital Entry Form and sent to the IAF Vice President by the deadline indicated (no alternates will be accepted),
- 4. Winners may return annually to compete in the IAF State Honors Recital as long they meet the IAF qualifications each year (1/2024),

B. HONORS RECITAL AWARDS MAY be given according to the categories and in the monetary amounts listed in IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.VI.H.

C. HONORS RECITAL JUDGES:

- 1. Will receive directives about the competition beforehand, only from the Chair of the event (IAF Vice President). No changes in the directives may be given, written or orally, except by the event chair,
- 2. Alone will decide from the directives given by the chair, how many awards are merited and what the rankings will be regardless of the contestant's age, difficulty, or instrument,

3. All judge decisions are final. Decisions may be made without justification. Only the judge can alter his/her decision (any time between providing results to IAF Vice President and before award checks are drawn),
4. Before, during and after all contests there will be no conversations with the judge except by the chair of the event regarding decisions, performances, program order, or any other thing related to the operation of the judging room.
5. Will be paid according to IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.VII.9.

D. HONORS RECITAL BEHAVIOR:

1. Before, during and after all contests there will be no opportunity for parents/legal guardians, students, accompanists, teachers, or officials other than the event chair, to speak with the judge(s) concerning decisions, performances, program order, or any other thing related to the operation of the judging room. Any such conversation is prohibited, (5/2024)
2. If an IAF teacher or parent/legal guardian has a complaint and wishes to submit a suggestion to be considered for future contests, a written (hard copy) letter must be submitted to the Executive Board via an IAF Officer. Emails, texts or phone calls do not constitute a written letter. (9/2018)
3. If an IAF Teacher speaks with the judge to discuss the operation of the judging room or the judge's decision, that teacher's students will be prohibited from participating in the Honors Recital the following year. (5/2024)
4. If a parent/legal guardian or student speaks with the judge to discuss the operation of the judging room or the judge's decision, that parent/legal guardian's student(s) will be prohibited from participating in the Honors Recital the following year. (5/2024)
5. Performers must be present for the entire duration of the program, including the opening ceremony and awards.

E. HONORS RECITAL VOLUNTEERS: (9/2018)

1. All IAF members present at the Honors Recital Program will assist during the competition at the direction of the Vice President.
2. Members will be asked to work at the registration table, as room monitors and as judge's assistants.

F. HONORS RECITAL SCORES: (9/2018)

1. Only commercially published music will be accepted.
2. Only original music will be accepted.
3. E-print music with a legible authentication page is not considered copied music. If submitted music is e-print, the tracer/authentication page must be printed, legible and accompany the score at the time of the audition.
4. Public Domain music may be used as long as:
 - a. It is not available from any copyrighted source.
 - b. The teacher and his/her student (or guardian) signs a “copyright representation and indemnification agreement” (see Appendix 1) certifying that,

- to the best of their knowledge, a copyrighted source does not exist. The form must be attached to the printed score that is presented as being in the public domain.
- c. The copyright representation and indemnification agreement accompanies the score and is handed to the judge at the time of performance.
 - d. Proof of copyright representation and indemnification is the responsibility of the teacher and/or entrant.
 - e. Any score presented for performance without such copyright representation and indemnification agreement renders the participant ineligible for that competition.
- 5. Instrumentalists must provide the judge with the solo score.
 - 6. All accompaniments must be performed live for the State Honors Recital.

1. Verify against list from Area Festival Treasurer that each teacher submitting entrants has paid dues for the current year,
 2. Set the festival day event schedule by assigning rooms, judges and events accordingly,
 3. Prepare judging sheets for each event entry,
 4. Order trophies (according to IAF Gold Cup plan), each Area Festival may order from their choice of trophy company,
 5. Order ribbons online from Tri-State Trophies by February 15th (Ribbons are paid for by IAF, however each festival must place their own ribbon order. Go to tristatetrophies.com and click on the IAF link at the bottom of the page or call Tri-State at 800-354-7585. Ribbons will be mailed to the area festival chair, which may incur shipping charges if not shipped with the gold cups if ordered from Tri-State),
- D. Each Chair should perform or delegate the following, prior to Festival:
1. Hire additional judges, if needed,
 2. Announce and prepare a Festival Day Judge's meeting/agenda,
 3. Send out judges schedule/duties and student schedule to all participating teachers,
 4. Arrange for Festival Day parent/student volunteers to cover Tab room, Welcome Desk and hired judge room monitor duties.
- E. Each Chair should perform or delegate the following, during/after the festival:
1. Tabulate festival judging results data,
 2. Return judges forms to individual teachers along with ribbons and trophies,
 3. Within two weeks of Festival, print off IAF Festival Summary Report from the IAF Festival website,
 4. In cooperation with Area Festival Treasurer, within two weeks of Festival, send payment of State Festival fees, including DNA's, along with a hard copy of IAF Festival Summary Report to IAF Treasurer,
 5. See that Area Festival Treasurer prepares an IAF Festival Accounting Form (income and expense balance), sending an electronic report to State Festival

Chair by deadline of May 20th (Bloomington deadline is one week after festival). Make two hard copies, one to be retained by Area Festival Chair, and the second to be retained by Area Festival Treasurer,

6. Keep records at the local level for 10 years,
7. Hold a Play-off to select contestants for the State Honors Recital (held on Saturday during the IAF Convention, the last weekend of May or first weekend of June), see IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section F.XIII,
8. Attend the IAF Convention Festival Chair meeting (or send a suitable representative), receiving an Honorarium for their area festival, amount as recorded in IAF Standing Rules and Procedures Section C.IV.c.. Honorariums will be forfeited if a Festival fails to send a representative to the IAF Convention Festival Chair meeting.

XVI. AREA FESTIVAL TREASURER

A. The Area Festival Treasurer is responsible to:

1. Keep annual Area Festival financial records for fiscal year July 1st to June 30th,
2. Upon request from the IAF Executive Board, email Area Festival Budget to the State Festival Chair,
